

RILEY SCHMIDT

New York, NY • 786-503-3112 • rjs9405@nyu.edu • LinkedIn

EDUCATION	New York University Bachelor of Arts in Art History and Bachelor of Science in Computer Science. GPA: 3.9 • Relevant Coursework In Art History: Race and Roman Art, Art and Law, Artists' Pigments: History, Techniques, Characterization and Conservation, Modern Art, Arts of Africa, Himalayan Art, Greek Painting, Renaissance Art, Caravaggio, Bernini, Poussain, Medieval Paris • Relevant Coursework in Computer Science: Introduction to Computer Science, Discrete Mathematics, Data Structures, Computer System Organization, Linear Algebra • Assisted in promotion of Grey Art Museum's Anonymous Was a Woman Exhibition; member of the Student Friends Committee's Graphic Design team. • Worked to promote NARCAN training and fentanyl awareness within NYU's student body.	New York, NY May 2027
HONORS	CAS Junior Presidential Honors Scholar	2023 - Present
PUBLICATIONS	Motive, Means and Opportunity: Comparing Exhibition Design at The Met and the Brooklyn Museum, Ink & Image 17th Edition Read Here
EXPERIENCE	Rubell Museum Museum Studies Intern • Gained deep insight into contemporary collection management under the mentorship of senior leadership, learning the logistics, maintenance protocols, and preservation strategies for a world-renowned private contemporary art collection. • Engaged with the local and international art ecosystem by participating in artist studio visits and conducting informational interviews with art world professionals to analyze diverse career pathways and industry standards.	Miami, FL June 2026 – July 2026
	Bakehouse Art Complex Summer Intern • Supported fundraising and donor relations by working with the development team to manage data integrity, track contributions, and pull targeted outreach lists within the Bloomerang CRM. • Coordinated day-to-day operations for a multi-acre cultural campus, managing the on-site art. • Served as a flexible, cross-functional partner across departments, pivoting daily to assist facilities, administrative, and programming teams with event logistics and administrative tasks.	Miami, FL May 2026 – June 2026
	New York University, College of Arts and Sciences Student Grader • Worked to ensure validity and accuracy in student-submitted Python assignments. Recorded scores and noted potential AI usage in programs. • Follow a schedule to ensure that assignments are graded promptly.	New York, NY January 2025 – May 2025
	Davis Phinney Foundation Volunteer • Worked as outreach for the Pedaling for Parkinson's Program. • Emailed and called hundreds of businesses. • Kept a spreadsheet of the businesses that were involved, and their status in the program.	Raleigh, NC June 2023 – August 2023
SKILLS	Computer: Advanced proficiency in PC & Macintosh, Google Workspaces, and Canva, Python and Java, Object Oriented Programming Languages: Fluent in English, French
CLUBS	Fine Art Society Student Friends Committee of NYU's Grey Art Museum Women in Computing	2024 – Present 2023 – Present 2024 - Present

